32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. ELIZABETH SETON CATHOLIC CHURCH

God is with us! Dios con nosotros!

We must live by The Widow's Faith

We must live by the obedience of faith, a faith that shows itself in works of charity and self-giving (see Galatians 5:6). That's the lesson of the two widows in today's liturgy.

“UNITED IN CHRIST” PROGRAM

This week you will receive a brochure introducing our “United in Christ” Program. I’m proud to be part of the St. Elizabeth Seton Church community. On Commitment Weekend, November 13 & 14, I invite each of you to participate in this important program and help us respond to God’s great gift of love. I ask that you please review this brochure and prayerfully consider how you and your family can help St. Elizabeth Seton Church by financially supporting our ministries, furthering our mission, and reinforcing our future.

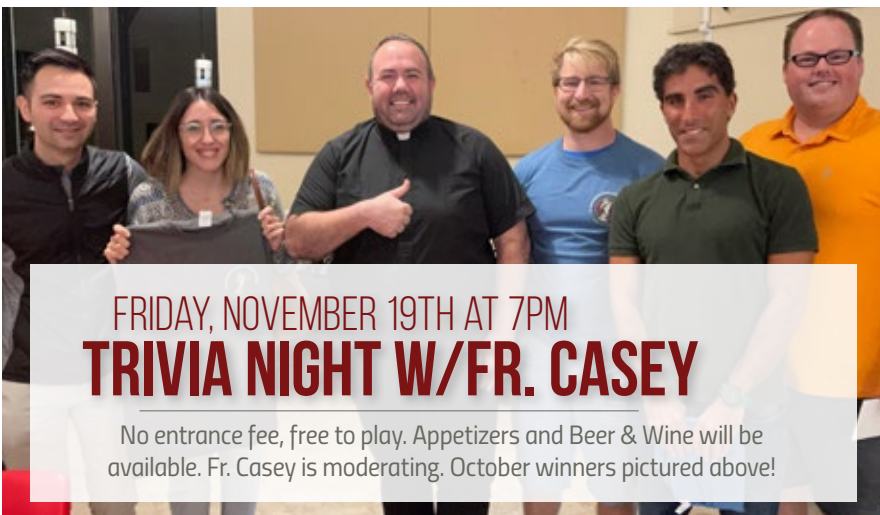

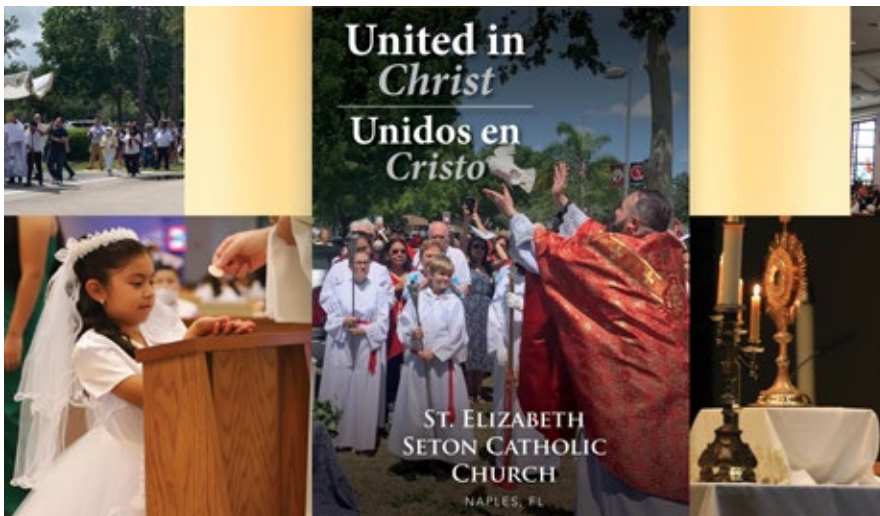

We ask that all faithful parishioners complete a Commitment Card. A card will be included in the brochure mailing for you to:

- mail to the church using the pre-addressed envelope included in this mailing.
- or bring your card to Mass next weekend, November 13-14.
- or you may visit our parish website at www.stelizabethseton.org and complete an electronic Commitment Card.

The back of the Commitment Card has a place for you to include any prayer intentions you wish to share. We welcome all intentions, and they will be prayed for collectively over the next few weeks. If you would like to speak to a priest, please indicate so on your card and we will be in contact with you.

Our goal is 100% participation! Thank you for your generosity and support of St. Elizabeth Seton Church!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Casey Jones, Pastor

VOCATION OR CALLING?

A vocation or calling refers to a spiritual experience whereby a person senses within oneself the closeness of God and what He is asking. It is a realization of what how one can be a part in God's plan. Vocations come in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion. We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit and God's grace, we can and will respond to His unique call.

INTENTION TAGS

You can write your specific intention, or the name of the person needing prayer and leave that in the Church.

St. James tells us in his letter: ...pray for one another, that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful. (James 5:16)

You can find tags and pens for this in the Narthex. You can write as much or as little as you want: a name, a word, a sentence, a symbol, or picture. Our staff will place your written intention by the Sacred Heart of Jesus statue. We will be praying for you and your intention!

Directions: Tags and pens are located on the table by the Sacred Heart of Jesus statue. Place your completed tag in the box there. No cost. Tags will be hung by parish staff once a week.

ONLINE PRAYER WALL

Sacred Scripture tells us to Pray without ceasing. (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

Jesus himself tells us: ...if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. (Matthew 18:19-20)

In praying for one another, we build up the Church, the Body of Christ. Here, St. Elizabeth Seton Church offers a space for you to make your prayer requests known.

Share as little or as much as you like. If you so choose, an email is sent to you when someone visits this site and prayers for your intention. We really like this feature as it provides so many of our prayer warriors, even those confined to their homes, a chance to minister and serve, as well as helping to storm heaven for your prayer intentions!

Click on "Share your prayer request" and follow the prompts. Also, take some time while you are here to pray for someone else's intentions! Say a prayer, brief or long as you want, and then click "I prayed for this." This is such a quick and easy way to build one another up in prayer!
