Consuming Fire

ur God is a consuming fire, the Scriptures tell us (see Hebrews 12:29; Deuteronomy 4:24). And in this week's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of fire to describe the demands of discipleship. The fire He has come to cast on the earth is the fire that He wants to blaze in each of our hearts. He made us from the dust of the earth (see Genesis 2:7) and filled us with the fire of the Holy Spirit in Baptism (see Luke 3:16).

We were baptized into His death (see Romans 6:3). This is the baptism our Lord speaks of in the Gospel this week. The baptism with which He must be baptized is His passion and death, by which He accomplished our redemption and sent forth the fire of the Spirit on the earth (see Acts 2:3).

The fire has been set, but it is not yet blazing. We are called to enter deeper into the consuming love of God. We must examine our consciences and our actions, submitting ourselves to the revealing fire of God's Word (see 1 Corinthians 3:13). In our struggle against sin, we have not yet resisted to the point of shedding our own blood, Paul tells us in this week's Epistle. We have not undergone the suffering that Jeremiah suffers in the First Reading this week. But this is what true discipleship requires. To be a disciple is to be inflamed with the love of the God. It is to have an unquenchable desire for holiness and zeal for the salvation of our brothers and sisters. Being His disciple does not bring peace in the false way that the world proclaims peace

(see Jeremiah 8:11). It means division and hardship. It may bring us to conflict with our own flesh and blood.

But Christ is our peace (see Ephesians 2:14). By His Cross He has lifted us up from the mire of sin and death—as He will rescue the prophet Jeremiah (see Jeremiah 38:10). And as we sing in the Psalm this week, we trust in our deliverer.

DIOCESE: HOW TO LIVE AS A CATHOLIC

It is important to remember that Catholicism is not a label that we just wear at Mass on Sunday– it is a life-changing encounter with Jesus Christ.

This encounter, if it is truly authentic, will lead us to live in ways that honor and please God. Everyone will follow Christ in a personal, unique way, but there are a few principles that should be followed by every Catholic:

LIVE YOUR FAITH

Deep down, we believe that the whole point of our faith & Church, is to help our people get closer to Christ, overcome spiritual sickness in every form, and then in turn, help others on the Path to leading lives of love and service. Ministries are how we do this. Learn more online at stelizabethseton.org/ministry

1. Live a Sacramental Life. Christ gave us the sacraments as opportunities for intimate encounters with him throughout our lives. We must regularly partake of them to fortify our relationship with him. Practically, this means being baptized, going to Mass every Sunday (and on weekdays if our schedule permits) and going to the Sacrament of Confession (Reconciliation) regularly (such as once a month).

2. The sacraments are not just for Sunday mornings, but to help us in our daily lives. One sacrament that especially is given to us for this reason is the Sacrament of Matrimony (marriage). So, it is important that you marry in the Catholic Church. If you are already married, having your marriage blessed by the Church will enable you to receive the graces of the sacrament.

3. Live the Beatitudes. Jesus was not just any ordinary moral teacher or wise philosopher. He preached a radical way of life, one that is often contrary to the wisdom of the prevailing culture, but that brings contentment and joy to those who follow it. The core of his teachings can be found in the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12) where Christ tells us, among other things, to be “poor in spirit,” “meek,” “pure of heart” and to “hunger and thirst for righteousness.” It takes a lifetime to truly embrace this type of living, but every Catholic should work and pray every day to infuse these beatitudes into his life.

4. Follow the Commandments. When we decide to become a follower of Jesus Christ in the Catholic Church, we freely agree to live by the commandments that Jesus gave us. Far from being limitations on our freedom, these commandments offer us a roadmap for joy-filled living. Just as a couple agrees to certain “restrictions” when they marry, Christians embrace a particular way of living in order to be free to love God fully. The restrictions on married persons are a vital means for spouses to show their faithful love towards one another. The same is true of the commandments Christ has given us.

5. Serve Others. An essential element of being a follower of Jesus Christ is the abandonment of self-centeredness. Jesus said that when we serve those who are lowly in this world – the poor, the oppressed, the prisoner – we are really serving him. We want to be like Christ, who gave his whole life for us, and so we should be willing to give of our time and resources to serve those less fortunate than ourselves. This service to others also includes sharing the Good News about Jesus Christ, for we do not only want to help others materially, but also spiritually.

Finally, every Catholic should own a Bible and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. If you live in the Diocese of Venice and would like a free copy of these books, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 941-484-9543 No obligation on your part is implied.
