Listen to Him

The Israelites' hearts were hardened by their hardships in the desert. Though they saw His mighty deeds, in their thirst they grumble and put God to the test in today's First Reading—a crisis point recalled also in today's Psalm. Jesus is thirsty, too in today's Gospel. He thirsts for souls (see John 19:28). He longs to give the Samaritan woman the living waters that well up to eternal life. These waters couldn't be drawn from the well of Jacob, father of the Israelites and the Samaritans.

But Jesus was something greater than Jacob (see Luke 11:31–32). The Samaritans were Israelites who escaped exile when Assyria conquered the Northern Kingdom eight centuries before Christ (see 2 Kings 17:6, 24–41). They were despised for intermarrying with non-Israelites and worshipping at Mount Gerazim, not Jerusalem.

But Jesus tells the woman that the "hour" of true worship is coming, when all will worship God in Spirit and truth. Jesus' "hour" is the "appointed time" that Paul speaks of in today's Epistle. It is the hour when the Rock of our salvation was struck on the Cross. Struck by the soldier's lance, living waters flowed out from our Rock (see John 19:34–37). These waters are the Holy Spirit (see John 7:38–39), the gift of God (see Hebrews 6:4).

By the living waters the ancient enmities of Samaritans and Jews have been washed away, the dividing wall between Israel and the nations is broken down (see Ephesians 2:12–14,18).

Since His hour, all may drink of the Spirit in Baptism (see 1 Corinthians 12:13). In the Eucharist, the Lord now is in our midst—as He was at the Rock of Horeb and at the well of Jacob. In the "today" of our Liturgy, He calls us to believe: "I am He," come to pour out the love of God into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. How can we continue to worship as if we don't understand? How can our hearts remain hardened?

Reflection by Scott Hahn

"Don't just receive the cross of ashes on your forehead this Lent. Let God breath life into you through the Sacraments of confession and the Eucharist."

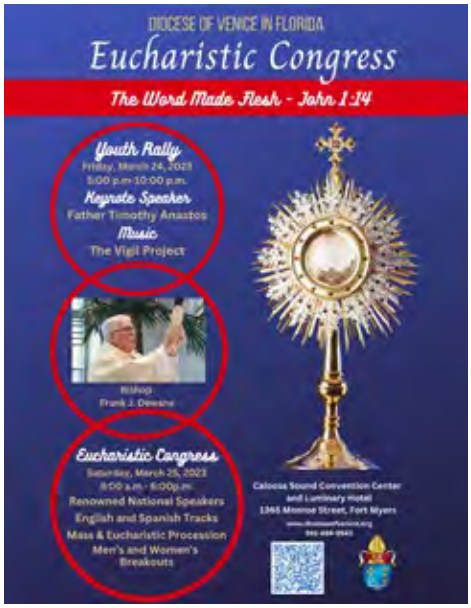
EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: "THE WORD BECAME FLESH"

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As the date of the Diocese's Eucharistic Congress approaches, I encourage you to participate in this important spiritual event. The Congress, meant to reinvigorate and restore reverence for the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, will be held on Saturday, March 25, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., at the Caloosa Sound Convention Center at 1375 Monroe Street in Fort Myers.

The theme of this Eucharistic Congress in the Diocese of Venice is "The Word Became Flesh." Inspirational talks by nationally known Catholic speakers will be presented, with men's and women's breakout sessions and offerings in both English and Spanish. Topics covered, for example, will include "Becoming a True Daughter of the King by Way of the Eucharist," and "Men of the Eucharist: Taken, Blessed, Broken & Given." The day-long event will also include opportunities for Adoration and Confession, culminating in a public Eucharistic Procession in Fort Myers, followed by the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

On the prior evening, a Diocesan Youth Rally – with age-appropriate topics and an inspiring performance by the popular musical group The Vigil Project – will take place, for those of you with teens or young adults! You can find all the details on the Diocese of Venice website, by clicking here. On the same site, please find a link to register, as well as an opportunity to book your hotel room at the Luminary Hotel at a special rate, should you choose to stay overnight (doors open at 8:00 a.m. on the 25th!) Won't you join us for this important celebration of the presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist? I look forward to seeing you there!



Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
