Word of the ‘Living Father’

The Eucharist is given to us as a challenge and a promise. That’s how Jesus presents it in today’s Gospel. He doesn’t make it easy for those who hear Him. They are repulsed and offended at His words. Even when they begin to quarrel, He insists on describing the eating and drinking of His flesh and blood in starkly literal terms. Four times in today’s reading, Jesus uses a Greek word—trogein—that refers to a crude kind of eating, almost a gnawing or chewing (see John 6:54, 56, 57, 58). He is testing their faith in His Word, as today’s First Reading describes God testing Israel in the desert. The heavenly manna was not given to satisfy the Israelites’ hunger, as Moses explains. It was given to show them that man does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. In today’s Psalm, too, we see a connection between God’s Word and the bread of life. We sing of God filling us with “finest wheat” and proclaiming His Word to the world.

In Jesus, “the living Father” has given us His Word come down from heaven, made flesh for the life of the world. Yet, as the Israelites grumbled in the desert, many in today’s Gospel cannot accept that Word. Even many of Jesus’ own followers abandon Him after this discourse (see John 6:66). But His words are Spirit and life, the words of eternal life (see John 6:63, 67). In the Eucharist we are made one flesh with Christ. We have His life in us and have our life because of Him. This is what

Paul means in today’s Epistle when he calls the Eucharist a “participation” in Christ’s body and blood. We become in this sacrament partakers of the divine nature (see 1 Peter 2:4). This is the mystery of the faith that Jesus asks us believe. And He gives us His promise: that, sharing in His flesh and blood that was raised from the dead, we too will be raised up on the last day. Reflection by Scott Hahn

DO YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT...

FUNERAL LITURGIES & MEMORIAL MASSES?

Everyone has (or will have) questions! It is not a popular topic, but a little bit of education now will serve you well in the future. Before you get all of your answers from the funeral home (which may or may not know what the Catholic church teaches regarding funerals), please read this! This is also available on the parish website for future reference www.stelizabethseton.org/funeral-and-memorial-masses.

Three Parts of the Funeral Liturgy

As the times we live in dictate, it is important that you are well-informed about the funeral liturgy of the Catholic Church, and that you have all options available to you.

The Funeral Liturgy typically consists of three parts:

- the Vigil in the presence of the Body,
- the Mass of Christian Burial (funeral Mass), and
- the Rite of Committal (burial, interment).

Typically, the Vigil takes place at the funeral home, the Mass in the Church, and the Committal at the cemetery.

Purpose of the Funeral Liturgy: The primary purpose of the Funeral Liturgy is to pray for your loved one, who is remembered most especially in The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the One-and-for-all Sacrifice of Jesus given for our salvation. We, as Catholics, believe that this prayer is efficacious and beneficial to the soul of our deceased loved ones, therefore the funeral, and most especially the funeral Mass (the second part) should not be considered a mere "celebration of life," but as a prayer for the repose of the soul of your loved ones.

Eulogies: The prayer vigil, typically held in the evening before the Mass of Christian Burial, is a the time and place to remember and share stories. Eulogies are not permitted at the Mass. If the family would like a eulogy the day of the Mass, it must be done immediately prior to Mass and only one speaker is permitted.

Regarding Cremation: The Holy See issued directives for cremation in 2016. The Catholic Church tolerates and permits cremation, if necessary, for serious reasons. It should be understood that "The Church continues to prefer the practice of burying the bodies of the deceased, because this shows a greater esteem towards the deceased."

If cremation is the course taken, the preference is for the body be received in the Church and for the body to be present for the Funeral Mass and cremated afterwards.

Cremated Remains: We believe that each of us was "fearfully and wonderfully made" by our God (Ps 139:14). Therefore, our bodies, even cremated remains, are treated with the utmost care and respect. They are placed in a sacred space, set apart for being able to visit and pray for the dead. Therefore, the Church tells us:

"The conservation of the ashes of the departed in a domestic residence is not permitted."

"The ashes may not be divided among various family members and due respect must be maintained regarding the circumstances of such a conservation."

"In order that every appearance of pantheism, naturalism or nihilism be avoided, it is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful departed in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way."

"Nor may [the ashes] be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry or other objects." Continued on the next page.

Like bodies, cremated remains are not to be intermingled, thus, may be buried/interred in the same space but in separate containers.

Timing of the Funeral Liturgy: Christian Burial should take place reasonably close to the person's death. Planning a funeral Mass, weeks, even months later because of family availability or convenience while the remains are kept somewhere, uninterred, is disrespectful and undermines the whole point of the Funeral Liturgy, which is to pray for the soul of our loved one. There is always an option of having the Funeral Liturgy, and then having a memorial Mass, weeks or months later when convenient for more family to attend, but the Funeral Liturgy should not be delayed.

Weekday Funerals at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Parish: Due to multiple Mass times, baptisms, weddings, and other celebrations, as well as necessary cleaning and sanitizing, St. Elizabeth Seton Church is not available for funerals on Saturday or Sunday.

Our Pastoral Staff and Volunteer Funeral Coordinators Are Here for You: Again, please know that when the funeral planning time comes, you have the prayers and support of this parish community. If there is any way we can assist you before, during, or after the funeral of your loved one, please do not hesitate to ask.

Volunteering in the Funeral Ministry is a real gift to others in their time of need, part emotional support, part leadership and part evangelization. If you would like to consider this ministry, please call the parish office.
