The Humble Path

Echoing the complaint heard in last week's readings, today's First Reading again presents protests that God isn't fair. Why does He punish with death one who begins in virtue but falls into iniquity, while granting life to the wicked one who turns from sin? This is the question that Jesus takes up in the parable in today's Gospel. The first son represents the most heinous sinners of Jesus' day—tax collectors and prostitutes—who by their sin at first refused to serve in the Lord's vineyard, the kingdom.

At the preaching of John the Baptist, they repented and did what was right and just. The second son represents Israel's leaders—who said they would serve God in the vineyard but refused to believe John when he told them they must produce good fruits as evidence of their repentance (see Matthew 3:8).

Once again, this week's readings invite us to ponder the unfathomable ways of God's justice and mercy. He teaches His ways only to the humble, as we sing in today's Psalm. And in the Epistle today, Paul presents Jesus as the model of that humility by which we come to know life's true path. Paul sings a beautiful hymn to the Incarnation. Unlike Adam, the first man, who in his pride grasped at being God, the New Adam, Jesus, Humbled himself to become a slave, obedient even unto death on the Cross (see Romans 5:12–17). In this He has shown sinners—each one of us—the way back to the Father. We can only come to God to serve in His vineyard, the Church, by having that same attitude as Christ. This is what Israel's leaders lacked. In their vainglory, they presumed their superiority—that they had no further need to hear God's Word or listen to God's servants. But this is the way to death, as God tells Ezekiel today. We are always to be emptying ourselves, seeking forgiveness for our sins and frailties, confessing on bended knee that He is Lord, to the glory of the Father.

GREAT NEWS!

The Catholic Community Foundation of Southwest Florida now has a Donor Selected Advisor Option. Individuals and families can now make charitable contributions into a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic community Foundation and have the assets in the DAF managed by their own trusted financial advisor. This option allows donors to create a DAF for tax saving and philanthropic reasons, maintain their relationship with their own advisor, and at the same time work with a faith-based foundation that supports their beliefs and personal values. Please contact Michael Morse the Executive Director of the Catholic Community Foundation to learn more. You can reach him by email at Morse@dioceseofvenice... or at 941-441-1124. You can also visit our Donor Selected Advisor page on our website at

<https://ccfdioceseofvenice.org/donor-selected-advisor/>

DONOR SELECTED ADVISOR OPTION

What is the Donor Selected Advisor Option?

The Donor Selected Advisor Option allows an individual or family to make charitable contributions into a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic Community Foundation while maintaining their relationship with their trusted financial advisor. The financial advisor will continue to manage the donated funds, but will be required to invest in a Catholic-screened portfolio or in predetermined funds that comply with the Catholic Community Foundation's Investment Policy. (This program begins with contributions of $50,000 or greater.)

What makes the Catholic Community Foundation different?

The Catholic Community Foundation (CCF) has a deep insight into the needs of the faith-based community in addition to charitable giving expertise. This unique combination allows the CCF to support the needs of Catholic donors, as well as the Parishes, Schools and ministries of the Diocese of Venice and beyond, in a way that no other foundation can.

What is the advantage of a Catholic Community Foundation fund over a private foundation?

A Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic Community Foundation can be an easier and more efficient solution than a family foundation. Quicker and considerably cheaper to establish, DAFs offer more privacy and better tax advantages than private family foundations—with a reduced financial and administrative burden.

How does this program benefit me, the advisor?

The Donor Selected Advisor Option benefits everyone involved. Financial advisors can:

- Provide your clients with a philanthropic plan that is as effective, efficient, and rewarding as every other element of the financial and estate plans you facilitate
- Introduce the idea of faith-based giving and investing to your clients while still maintaining your relationship
- Continue to manage the assets contributed by your clients on your firm's investment platform
- Convert non-managed client assets, such as real estate, personal property, and art into charitable dollars that you will manage
- Offer clients a value-added service by connecting them to some of the best charitable giving products and services on the market
