CONFESSION AND HOLY COMMUNION GO TOGETHER!

Daily conversion and penance find their source and nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God.

Through the Eucharist those who live from the life of Christ are fed and strengthened. "It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins."

-From the Catechism of the Catholic Church CCC 1436

Confessions are heard every Tuesday, 6-6:45pm in English and Spanish and on Saturdays, 3-3:45pm in English and 5:30-6:15pm in Spanish.

Dressing for the Feast

Our Lord's parable in today's Gospel is again a fairly straightforward outline of salvation history. God is the king (see Matthew 5:35), Jesus the bridegroom (see Matthew 9:15), the feast is the salvation and eternal life that Isaiah prophesies in today's First Reading. The Israelites are those first invited to the feast by God's servants, the prophets (see Isaiah 25:6). For refusing repeated invitations and even killing His prophets, Israel has been punished, its city conquered by foreign armies. Now, Jesus makes clear, God is sending new servants, His Apostles, to call not only Israelites, but all people—good and bad alike—to the feast of His kingdom. This an image of the Church, which Jesus elsewhere compares to a field sown with both wheat and weeds, and a fishing net that catches good fish and bad (see Matthew 13:24–43, 47–50).

We have all been called to this great feast of love in the Church, where, as Isaiah foretold, the veil that once separated the nations from the covenants of Israel has been destroyed, where the dividing wall of enmity has been torn down by the blood of Christ (see Ephesians 2:11–14). As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord has led us to this feast, refreshing our souls in the waters of Baptism, spreading the table before us in the Eucharist. As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, in the glorious riches of Christ we will find supplied whatever we need. In the rich food of His body and the choice wine of His blood, we have a foretaste of the eternal banquet in the heavenly Jerusalem, when God will destroy death forever (see Hebrews 12:22–24). But are we dressed for the feast? Are we clothed in the garment of righteousness (see Revelation 19:7–8)? Not all who have been called will be chosen for eternal life, Jesus warns. Let us be sure that we're living in a manner worthy of the invitation we've received (see Ephesians 4:1).

DIOCESE: WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday will be celebrated on October 22, 2023. This annual celebration joins Catholics worldwide into one community of Faith, inviting us to recommit ourselves to the Church's missionary call through prayer, participation in the Sunday Eucharist, and sacrifice.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday reflects on the theme, "Hearts on fire, feet on the move," based on the story of the disciples who encounter Jesus on their way to Emmaus (cf. Lk 24:13-35). Our Holy Father invites us to set out "to make other hearts burn with the word of God, to open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist."

Throughout the year, the Pontifical Mission Societies support the work of mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay pastoral leaders. These missionaries not only provide food, housing, education, and medical care to the most impoverished communities throughout the world; they offer hope and compassion.

The World Mission Sunday Collection, in the Diocese of Venice in Florida, will take place on the weekend of October 21 and 22, 2023. World Mission Sunday offers each one of us an opportunity to come together to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized. Thank you for your generosity to those in need and your prayers for those in mission territories.

I take this opportunity to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

LA JORNADA MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

La Jornada Mundial de las Misiones se celebrará el 22 de octubre del 2023. Esta celebración anual une a los Católicos de todo el mundo en una sola comunidad de Fe, invitándonos a comprometernos de nuevo con el llamado misionero de la Iglesia a través de la oración, la participación en la Eucaristía dominical y el sacrificio.

El mensaje del Papa Francisco para la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones reflexiona sobre el tema "Corazones encendidos, pies en marcha", basado en la historia de los discípulos que se encuentran con Jesús de camino a Emaús (cf. Lc 24, 13-35). Nuestro Santo Padre nos invita a ponernos en camino "para hacer arder otros corazones con la palabra de Dios, para abrir los ojos de los demás a Jesús en la Eucaristía".

A lo largo del año, las Obras Misionales Pontificias apoyan el trabajo de los sacerdotes misioneros, de las Religiosas y Religiosos, y de los líderes pastorales laicos. Estos misioneros no sólo proporcionan alimentos, vivienda, educación y atención médica a las comunidades más empobrecidas de todo el mundo; ellos ofrecen esperanza y compasión.

La Colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, en la Diócesis de Venice en Florida, tendrá lugar el fin de semana del 21 y 22 de octubre del 2023. El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones nos ofrece a cada uno de nosotros la oportunidad de unirnos para apoyar la presencia vivificante de la Iglesia entre los pobres y marginados.

Gracias por su generosidad con los necesitados y sus oraciones por los que están en territorios de misión.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para extenderles firmemente mi continua consideración, así como mis oraciones.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Obispo de la Diócesis de Venice en Florida

GREAT NEWS!

The Catholic Community Foundation of Southwest Florida now has a Donor Selected Advisor Option. Individuals and families can now make charitable contributions into a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic community Foundation and have the assets in the DAF managed by their own trusted financial advisor. This option allows donors to create a DAF for tax saving and philanthropic reasons, maintain their relationship with their own advisor, and at the same time work with a faith-based foundation that supports their beliefs and personal values. Please contact Michael Morse the Executive Director of the Catholic Community Foundation to learn more. You can reach him by email at Morse@dioceseofvenice... or at 941-441-1124. You can also visit our Donor Selected Advisor page on our website at

<https://ccfdioceseofvenice.org/donor-selected-advisor/>

DONOR SELECTED ADVISOR OPTION

What is the Donor Selected Advisor Option?

The Donor Selected Advisor Option allows an individual or family to make charitable contributions into a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic Community Foundation while maintaining their relationship with their trusted financial advisor. The financial advisor will continue to manage the donated funds, but will be required to invest in a Catholic-screened portfolio or in predetermined funds that comply with the Catholic Community Foundation's Investment Policy. (This program begins with contributions of $50,000 or greater.)

What makes the Catholic Community Foundation different?

The Catholic Community Foundation (CCF) has a deep insight into the needs of the faith-based community in addition to charitable giving expertise. This unique combination allows the CCF to support the needs of Catholic donors, as well as the Parishes, Schools and ministries of the Diocese of Venice and beyond, in a way that no other foundation can.

How does this program benefit me, the advisor?

The Donor Selected Advisor Option benefits everyone involved. Financial advisors can:

- Provide your clients with a philanthropic plan that is as effective, efficient, and rewarding as every other element of the financial and estate plans you facilitate
- Introduce the idea of faith-based giving and investing to your clients while still maintaining your relationship
- Continue to manage the assets contributed by your clients on your firm's investment platform
- Convert non-managed client assets, such as real estate, personal property, and art into charitable dollars that you will manage
- Offer clients a value-added service by connecting them to some of the best charitable giving products and services on the market

What is the advantage of a Catholic Community Foundation fund over a private foundation?

A Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic Community Foundation can be an easier and more efficient solution than a family foundation. Quicker and considerably cheaper to establish, DAFs offer more privacy and better tax advantages than private family foundations—with a reduced financial and administrative burden.

We Hold Fast to Our Values The Mission

St. Elizabeth Seton School is an extension of the teaching mission of the Catholic Church. The goal of the administration, faculty and staff is to nurture the development of a complete, well-rounded child. To accomplish this goal, the school emphasizes high academic standards and moral values, as well as integration of the Catholic Christian philosophy in all aspects of school life. The curriculum is designed to encourage all students to achieve their spiritual, intellectual and social potential, as well as to understand the relevance of Catholic values in their daily life.

We hold fast to our values.
