CONFESSION AND HOLY COMMUNION GO TOGETHER!

Daily conversion and penance find their source and nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God.

Through the Eucharist those who live from the life of Christ are fed and strengthened. "It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins."

-From the Catechism of the Catholic Church CCC 1436

Confessions are heard every Tuesday, 6-6:45pm in English and Spanish and on Saturdays, 3-3:45pm in English and 5:30-6:15pm in Spanish.

Caesar & the King

The Lord is king over all the earth, as we sing in today's Psalm. Governments rise and fall by His permission, with no authority but that given from above (see John 19:11; Romans 13:1). In effect, God says to every ruler what He tells King Cyrus in today's First Reading: "I have called you... though you knew me not." The Lord raised up Cyrus to restore the Israelites from exile, and to rebuild Jerusalem (see Ezra 1:1-4). Throughout salvation history, God has used foreign rulers for the sake of His chosen people. Pharaoh's heart was hardened to reveal God's power (see Romans 9:17). Invading armies were used to punish Israel's sins (see 2 Maccabees 6:7-16).

The Roman occupation during Jesus' time was, in a similar way, a judgment on Israel's unfaithfulness. Jesus' famous words in today's Gospel, "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar," are a pointed reminder of this. And they call us, too, to keep our allegiances straight.

The Lord alone is our king. His kingdom is not of this world (see John 18:36) but it begins here in His Church, which tells of His glory among all peoples. Citizens of heaven (see Philippians 3:20), we are called to be a light to the world (see Matthew 5:14)—working in faith, laboring in love, and enduring in hope, as today's Epistle counsels. We owe the government a concern for the common good and obedience to laws—unless they conflict with God's commandments as interpreted by the Church (see Acts 5:29).

But we owe God everything. The coin bears Caesar's image. But we bear God's own image (see Genesis 1:27). We owe Him our very lives—all our heart, mind, soul, and strength, offered as a living sacrifice of love (see Romans 12:1-2). We should pray for our leaders, that like Cyrus they do God's will (see 1 Timothy 2:1-2)—until from the rising of the sun to its setting all humanity knows that Jesus is Lord.

LA JORNADA MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

La Jornada Mundial de las Misiones se celebrará el 22 de octubre del 2023. Esta celebración anual une a los Católicos de todo el mundo en una sola comunidad de Fe, invitándonos a comprometernos de nuevo con el llamado misionero de la Iglesia a través de la oración, la participación en la Eucaristía dominical y el sacrificio.

El mensaje del Papa Francisco para la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones reflexiona sobre el tema "Corazones encendidos, pies en marcha", basado en la historia de los discípulos que se encuentran con Jesús de camino a Emaús (cf. Lc 24, 13-35). Nuestro Santo Padre nos invita a ponernos en camino "para hacer arder otros corazones con la palabra de Dios, para abrir los ojos de los demás a Jesús en la Eucaristía".

A lo largo del año, las Obras Misionales Pontificias apoyan el trabajo de los sacerdotes misioneros, de las Religiosas y Religiosos, y de los líderes pastorales laicos. Estos misioneros no sólo proporcionan alimentos, vivienda, educación y atención médica a las comunidades más empobrecidas de todo el mundo; ellos ofrecen esperanza y compasión.

La Colecta del Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, en la Diócesis de Venice en Florida, tendrá lugar el fin de semana del 21 y 22 de octubre del 2023. El Domingo Mundial de las Misiones nos ofrece a cada uno de nosotros la oportunidad de unirnos para apoyar la presencia vivificante de la Iglesia entre los pobres y marginados.

Gracias por su generosidad con los necesitados y sus oraciones por los que están en territorios de misión.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para extenderles firmemente mi continua consideración, así como mis oraciones.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Obispo de la Diócesis de Venice en Florida

Governor Ron DeSantis and First Lady Casey DeSantis Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month and Host Contest Winners at Governor's Mansion

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — This week, Governor Ron DeSantis and First Lady Casey DeSantis announced this year's Hispanic Heritage Month student and educator contest winners. Contest winners were invited to the Florida Governor's Mansion where they received prizes and were recognized for their art, essays and educational contributions. This year, students wrote essays and created art that reflected the theme "Celebrating Florida's Hispanic Heroes and Their Contributions to Freedom." Hispanic Heritage Month is recognized and celebrated in the United States from September 15 to October 15.

"Florida has extensive Hispanic heritage, and many Hispanic Floridians have played a significant role in defending freedom and liberty," said Governor Ron DeSantis. "We are proud to teach students about their important contributions and the role they have played in preserving freedom."
